

2026 年 04 月 25 日雅思写作预测

雅思写作机经使用说明：

1. 雅思写作考试中，Task 2 的考题有较为规定的出题范围，即包含社会、教育等的常考

话题类型。因此考生在考前需要确保各个类型的话题都较为熟悉的情况下，再结合近

期较有可能考到的题目进行重点的准备。

2. 机经中给出的例题均选自于近期海外热门题目，近期有较大可能重复考核的话题问题。

要注意的是，写作考题预测的是话题的类型，在考场上原题重现的概率较小，同学们准备这

些题目后，考试中仍需要做好审清题意、举一反三，切忌原封不动地背诵范文。

3. 机经中的每道题目先想中文思路，会写的可以跳过，不会写的动笔尝试写出提纲~如果

考到相似题目即可作为素材使用。

4. 对写出的提纲，可以进行进一步地作文写作。看看论点是否能够用英语顺利表述出

来，能否充分论证每一个论点。

5. 尝试计时写作，小作文控制在 15-20 分钟内、大作文 35-40 分钟内完成。

6. 写作完成后练习自我纠错检查，保证词汇语法正确。

最后，机经的作用只是锦上添花而不能拯救你于水火，请大家还是科学复习，尽量不要突击。

1. Many people believe that modern education systems fail to develop critical thinking skills because they focus too much on memorization and standardized testing. To what extent do you agree or disagree?
2. Some people argue that technological progress has made humans more disconnected from nature. Do you agree or disagree?
3. Some people argue that globalization has led to the homogenization of cultures, while others believe that it has increased cultural diversity and exchange. Discuss both views and give your opinion.
4. Some people believe that the pursuit of happiness is the most important goal in life, while others think that contributing to society is more meaningful. Discuss both views and give your opinion.
5. Some people think that the only way to achieve true equality is to eliminate all forms of hierarchy and competition. Others believe that some inequality is natural and even beneficial. Discuss both views and give your opinion.
6. In many societies, the concept of "success" has become narrowly defined as financial wealth and career achievement. What problems does this narrow definition cause, and how can it be broadened?

7. Some people believe that individual freedom should be limited when it conflicts with the collective good, while others argue that individual rights should never be sacrificed for the majority. Discuss both views and give your opinion.

8. In many countries, the concept of a "standard of living" is measured primarily by material wealth. To what extent do you think this is an accurate measure of quality of life?

9. Some people think that the increasing influence of science and technology has diminished the importance of the arts and humanities in society. Do you agree or disagree?

10. In many countries, the traditional family structure has changed significantly in recent decades. Some see this as a negative development, while others view it as a natural evolution. Discuss both views and give your opinion.

11. Some people believe that the purpose of law is not only to maintain order but also to promote justice and fairness. Others argue that law should simply reflect the will of the majority. Discuss both views and give your opinion.

12. Many people believe that the modern world has become too focused on efficiency and productivity, at the expense of creativity and human connection. To what extent do you agree or disagree?

13. Some people argue that democracy is the only legitimate form of government, while others believe that different political systems may be appropriate for different cultural and historical contexts. Discuss both views and give your opinion.

14. In many countries, the gap between the values of younger and older generations seems to be widening. What are the causes of this phenomenon, and what effects does it have on society?

15. Some people believe that the concept of "work-life balance" is outdated and that in a competitive global economy, people must be willing to prioritize work above all else. Others disagree. Discuss both views and give your opinion.
